The hall trustees are working within the requirements of GDPR to protect your personal details. Information that we hold is used solely for our administration and accountancy purposes.

We do not use, or share your information with other organisations, for marketing purposes. Should you feel that the Trustees have failed in some aspect of GDPR and the processing of your details please inform us so that we may investigate and correct our systems, should they require it.

Privacy Policy

The hall trustees are committed to protecting your privacy. This policy explains how we use personal information that we collect from you and forms part of our conditions of use of the hall.

Information that we collect

This includes your name, phone numbers, email address, postal address, and your intended use of the hall. If you are representing a club or other organisation we will collect details of the organisation and your position within it.

How we use this information

We may use this information to process bookings, maintain the online calendar, ticket sales and for accountancy and record keeping purposes, or to contact you. Information will only be stored for as long as needed. For financial records such as invoices and payments we are legally required to store these details for 7 years.

How to Access and Control Your Personal Data

You may request details of information that we hold about you. If you wish to do so please write to, or email us with this request. If you believe any of the information we hold to be inaccurate or incomplete please contact us and we will investigate and correct any inaccuracies.

Disclosing Your Data

We will not make your personal data available to outside organisations unless required to do so by law, e.g. if a court or other UK law enforcement agency has asked for it, or if it is required by our insurers.

How your data is protected

We take the protection of your data seriously and have security measures in place to keep it safe. We restrict access of this to a very small number of highly trusted persons who need to access it to perform their duties.

General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)

We fully support the requirements of the GDPR and are committed to the protection of personal data belonging to our hirers, trustees, volunteers and the general public.

We will conduct regular audits of our policies to ensure compliance with GDPR.
